An Unforgettable Conference

NEOS LIFE

150 Pax

What was the purpose of the conference?

The purpose of the conference was for this national company to gather all employees together. It served as an opportunity to discuss the company's direction and strategy, as well as to enjoy some quality time together. The whole company attended including the executive team right down to interns.

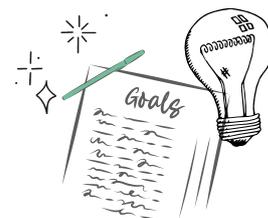

How did we enhance the guest experience while aligning with NEOS's objectives?

NEOS sought our expertise to craft a successful conference, leveraging our deep local knowledge and strong relationships with regional partners and hotels. We secured the opportunity by presenting three compelling options, including Brisbane and the Gold Coast.

Following a productive conversation with the CEO, we refined the program to better align with their objectives. Despite multiple changes and requests, we eagerly accommodated every detail, recognizing the significance of this new partnership. The result was a flawlessly executed conference and event, ensuring NEOS not only met their goals but also enjoyed a memorable and rewarding experience.

"A huge thank you to everyone for making our NEOS conference truly special! Your flexibility and hospitality ensured that everyone had a fantastic time. You all are amazing, and I will certainly be recommending you in the future."

- David Klooster - NEOS LIFE, People Experience Lead
